NEWSPAPER, NEW CASTLE COUNTY, DELAWARE, SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 9, 1872.

[illegible] to the universal praise he deserves for the admirable tact and judgment which he displayed on the occasion of the royal procession. The Queen's entrance, said the Mayor, was the signal for the commencement of the rejoicings. The Queen graciously replied that the Royal family sympathized most deeply with the people in their rejoicings at the recovery of the Prince of Wales from his late dangerous illness. It has been said that loyalty was dying out, but the exhibition of to-day disproves that assertion. We are one in loyalty, may we be also, in faith, Christians in God. We know He watches over us. Let us all unite in this belief, and in reliance on Christ as our mediator.

The appearance of the interior of the Cathedral was greatly changed by temporary arrangements for the occasion. A thousand workmen have been employed for weeks past erecting seats and galleries, and to-day their labors enabled 14,000 persons to be seated within the body of the church. Hardly less labor will be required to restore the Cathedral to its usual order, so extensive and durable have been the preparations for to-day.

The Queen and royal family occupied a raised State pew at the centre of the mouth of the nave, having the Peers and Peeresses on the right hand, and the members of the House of Commons with their wives, on the left, the Lord Chancellor and Speaker of the House occupying gilt arm chairs in front of their respective bodies. In the first tier of the south gallery were seated the representatives from India and the Colonies. In front of them were the learned bodies, clerical and secular, non-conformist divines and the legal fraternity.

Distinguished foreigners occupied the ground floor of the octagon galleries, with the Queen's household above. The first tier of the north gallery was assigned to the Corporation of London, the smaller galleries flanking it to the Lord Lieutenant and Sheriffs, the Diplomatic Corps and the Metropolitan Board of Works, and the tiers overhead to the School Board; the remainder of the space was thrown open to the general public. Fifty seats in the Cathedral were set apart for workingmen free of expense, at the special request of the queen.

The choir was composed of picked singers from the various Royal chapels. At the conclusion of the religious services the procession formed again and moved westward, through Newgate street, by Old Bailey, to and across Holborn Viaduct, near the western end of which, at the boundary of the city, the Lord Mayor's party bade adieu to the Royal household. On Snow Hill a platform was erected, which accommodated over a thousand people. In front of the platform was a choir of two hundred and fifty children, who sang the National anthem as the Royal family approached, but their singing was drowned by an outburst of cheering as the royal coach, now containing the Queen, Prince of Wales and Princess Alexandra, came in front of the stand. The reception here given them was especially enthusiastic, the loyalty of the people seeming to partake of a personal and even affectionate character. The Queen was observed to be moved to tears. The Prince appeared to have borne the excitement and fatigue of the day well. The Thanksgiving procession resumed its way past High Holborn and through Oxford Road to the more fashionable West End.

The procession was four hours in motion. Best estimates place the number of spectators who witnessed its passage at four millions. There were eleven thousand troops besides the London police force engaged in keeping the streets clear, that there might be no interruptions or accidents. The troops were commanded by the Earl of Lucan, of the First Life Guards; Major General Sir Thomas W. MacMahon; Major General the Prince Edward of Saxe Weimar, and Major General Primrose, of the Household Brigade.

Along the entire route strong fences of timber were erected, and behind these were double files of infantry and police to keep the eager crowd from overthrowing the barriers and obstructing the passage of the procession. At numerous points on the way were stationed bands of music, which played God Save the Queen as the Royal party came opposite to them. Eight score tenumerable have flocked into London All the city and out of town railways run extra trains to accommodate the crowds.

Among the strangers who are here may be seen officials from all quarters of the Kingdom. The Mayor of Dublin, Provost of Belfast and many others, more or less distinguished visitors from the neighboring States of Europe, are hardly less numerous; and for nearly a week past the streets along the route of the procession, Pall Mall, Portland Square, Bayswater street, the Strand, Fleet street, Ludgate hill, St. Paul Church yard, the City Military, Holborn, Oxford street and Hyde Park, were crowded almost impassable by the crowds which thronged to view the illuminations and the general rejoicings.

On Sunday last particularly from City [illegible] were [illegible] to see the [illegible] Queen [illegible] Prince [illegible] Sandringham [illegible] Prince [illegible] Queen [illegible] Prince [illegible] Queen [illegible] Prince [illegible] Queen

Voting for Commissioners being through,
For Assessor and Treasurer, too,
Our Caleb standing by them the stand
The nomination for Aldermen.

One name was put in nomination,
Our Caleb pining for the station,
Said: "thinking that place by every right
I'll feel insulted if dropped to-night."

That Caleb is efficient, who denies?
If not otherwise, he is in size;
But when the votes were counted, please note,
Caleb's opponent received every vote.

The ticket, it seems, did not suit some,
So to make another they began;
And what did we see, to our surprise?
It supported by former allies.

The reason for this was soon found out
Without much trouble, for canting about
We learned that for votes, (now pray dont laugh)
The "Antics" paid two drinks and a half [$].

For Treasurer, Caleb was put on,
Then we knew he was certainly gone;
He said: "If I can't be Alderman,
On the other side I'll take my stand."

This fusion ticket, we understand,
Was gotten up by a Hanson man;
And the Railroad men enlisted, too,
Also Dick and Foard—a motley crew.

A post-master now swelled their numbers,
And was hailed by the other bummers;
He, it is said, obtained for his vote
Two good drinks and a counterfeit note.

Now this was quite bad in Dan-u-el,
Whose soreness I will briefly tell:
He bolted the convention, you see,
As he couldn't a Commissioner be.

Richard, who keeps a good restaurant,
For unknown reasons became rampant;
He tried our nominees to defeat,
Only to find they could not be beat.

A dry old stick is Richard, too,
So lean and lank and gawkish;
Comical, quisical, in his whole physical,
And in sentiment mawkish.

Richard thinks he has found a great flaw,
And sternly swears he will go to law,
And will try, without reservation,
To oust for disqualification.

None doubt that Richard's a man of lore,
But think he ought to stay in his store;
And their dispense his cakes and candies,
Never again found with the "Antics."

Senator Sumner has given to a friend a very correct statement of the character of President Grant. A Chicago paper's Washington correspondent says Mr. Bowen, of the Independent, visited Washington to see how things stood, and sought an interview with the Massachusetts Senator. He asked Mr. Sumner if he would vote for Grant in case he should be nominated. "No," said the Senator, "I will never vote for him." "Why not?" "I am satisfied," said Mr. Sumner, that Grant is a dishonest man. That is sufficient to justify me in saying most positively that I cannot and shall not support him. For other reasons he is unfit to be President of the United States. He does not possess the necessary capacity. He is ingorant of the details of civil government, and does not manifest a disposition to learn them. He is venal, ambitious, and vulgar in his habits, and possesses a cunning which is low and dogged. He has a strong will, but it is never controlled by reason, hence he becomes perverse, and the man when he should be most yielding and gentlemanly is most obstinate and unmanly. Such a man is unfit to be President of the United States, and most unfit to be the candidate of the Republican party. He ought not to be nominated by that party, and shall not be if I can help it. I cannot honorably support a party that will sustain such a man."

To the further inquiry, "Suppose the Convention should place your colleague, Mr. Wilson, on the ticket with Grant, what would you do in that case?" "I would oppose it," was the prompt response of Sumner. Mr. Bowen then questioned the Senator upon the possibility of the nomination of Mr. Colfax, and Mr. Sumner said, "I will support Mr. Colfax or any other good Republican cheerfully."

No wonder Conkling and myrmidons of the Administration attack the Massachusetts Senator with such violence.

A GREAT SCANDAL IN BALTIMORE.—Baltimore city has been much excited for the last ten days over a great scandal which became generally known last week. It appears that a school girl, about 15 or 16 years old, attending one of the public schools in the city, attempted the seduction of a young man by writing a note, inviting him to an assignation at a house of ill-repute. Instead of accepting the invitation, he informed the principal of the school, who expelled her, and notified the girl's mother of the facts in the case. When taken to task by her mother the girl confessed that her delinquencies had been going on for some time, and charged her seducer, as well as the seduction of several other young girls, on Rev. Dr. L. D. Huntley, of Wesley M. E. Church. She said she was a Sunday School scholar of Mr. Huntley's, and he was stationed at [illegible] said it was [illegible] months [illegible] he left a station to his wife. "A bill has been introduced in the New York Legislature allowing as a cause for limited divorce "such conduct on the part of the husband towards the wife as shall, without just cause, deprive her of the society of her relatives, or friends, or of attendance upon public worship, or shall designedly render her life unhappy or uncomfortable." "Relatives" is a comprehensive word, applying not merely to mothers-in-law, and it would seem that a husband has only, under this bill, to shut out his wife's second cousin, who may want to make a boarding house of his residence—and there is cause for divorce. The want of a carriage, or a box at the opera, or a set of diamonds or furs, might, in the absence of more serious grounds of discomfort, cause a decidedly "uncomfortable" sensation with some wives, and backed by a few tears and an able lawyer, sufficiently answer as a plea for divorce.

To the officers of the Middletown Immigration Society!!

THE Middletown Immigration Society having been permanently organized, and having procured a competent and responsible agent, orders for domestics or farm laborers are solicited.

Each member ordering immigrants shall pay to the Treasurer of the Society at the time of ordering, six dollars for each and every man, woman or child ordered. He shall also, at the same time, give to the Treasurer a negotiable note, with an approved endorser, dated February 10th, 1872, payable in sixty days from said date, for one-half the balance; and also a promissory note for the remaining half, payable on delivery in Middletown of the man, woman or child ordered. In case the last note shall not be promptly paid upon delivery of Immigrant, the person ordering shall forfeit to the Society all former payments.

Upon payment to the Treasurer as above farm laborers or domestics of either sex will be delivered at Middletown, with as little delay as possible, who will enter into legal contracts to render service for a year from date of arrival.

Employers will be expected to furnish comfortable lodgings and board for their servants, and, at the end of the year, to give fifteen dollars to each male and ten dollars to each female, whose services have been satisfactory.

Our agent will be specially instructed and will engage to procure only such as have certificates of good character, and have experience in the duties of their several vocations.

All orders must describe particularly the age, sex, services to be required, &c.

For further particulars inquire of
Dr. G. TROUP MAXWELL,

COAL! COAL!! COAL!!!

J. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & Co., Druggists and Gen. Ag'ts, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 & 34 Commerce St., N. Y.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

They are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the Tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist, "There is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.

J. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & CO., Druggists and General Agents, San Francisco, California, and 32 and 34 Commerce Street, New York.

WILTBERGER'S

Flavoring Extracts

are warranted equal to any made. They are prepared from the fruits, and will be found much better than many of the Extracts that are sold. Ask your Grocer or Druggist for Wiltberger's Extracts.

BARLOW'S INDIGO BLUE

Is, without doubt, the best article in the market for bluing clothes. It will color more water than four times the same weight of indigo, and much more than any other wash blue in the market. the only genuine is that put up at ALFRED WILTBERGER'S DRUG STORE, No. 233 North Second St. Philadelphia, Pa. The labels have both Wiltberger's and Barlow's name on them, all others are counterfeit. For sale by most grocers and druggists.

WILTBERGER'S INDELIBLE INK will be found on trial to be a superior article. Always on hand, and for sale at reasonable prices, Pure Grund Spices, Genuine Medicines, Chamois Skins Sponges, Tapioca, Pearl, Sago, and all articles in the drug line, at
